

Construct regular pyramid with hexagon base, which is determined by its axis m and one of the vertices A is not lying on m . The true length of the height of the pyramid is 70 mm. Use the method of rotation and perpendicularity of line and plane. Show the visibility.

